Lillian Hall (American, 1905 - 2000)
Composition No. II, ca. 1940s
Gouache, watercolor and collage on paper
19 1/2 x 14 1/2 inches
Signed Lillian Hall, lower right; titled on reverse.
#7322

Exhibited:

Exhibited: “Skirting Convention: Illinois Women Artists, 1840 to 1940”, Lakeview Museum of Arts and Sciences, Peoria, IL, October 1, 2012 - January 14, 2012, Quincy Art Center, Quincy, IL, February 10-March 18, 2012.

Lillian Hall

Lillian Hall was born in Waukegan, IL in 1905. Hall served in the Women's Army Air Corps during WWII. She graduated from the Institute of Design in Chicago and worked as an art instructor for the Chicago Park District. She was a director of the Chicago Society of Artists. In 2000, Hall died in Chesterton, IN at the age of 95.